

Special rules League of Nations

COMMITTEE RULES

1. Membership

Rule 12 shall apply for all Member States involved in the discussed conflict.

2. Special Voting Rules

1. The League of Nations shall make every effort to reach agreement on substantive matters by way of consensus.
2. If the consensus fails due to any formal objection, there shall be no further voting on substantive matters.

3. Motion for a Closed-Door Session

1. Representatives may propose a motion for a closed-door session, if the item under discussion requires secrecy.
2. This is a procedural motion.
3. This motion does not require debate and needs a simple majority to pass.
4. If the motion passes, journalists will be asked to leave the room and only Members of the League of Nations, accredited Observers and the Secretaries-General will be allowed to remain in the room. No statements or documents will be allowed to be published during a closed-door session.
5. The session will become public again as soon as a motion for a suspension of the meeting or for an unmoderated caucus passes.

4. Motion to vote clause by clause

1. Representatives can move to vote clause by clause on the operative clauses of a Draft Resolution during voting procedure.
2. This motion is a procedural motion.
3. This motion does not require debate and needs a simple majority to pass.
4. If the motion receives the required majority, the Chairpersons will proceed to vote on each operative clause, separately. These votes will be substantive in nature. Only clauses receiving a majority of affirmative votes will be allowed to stand.
